Approved For Release 2002/05/08 : CIA-RDP57-00384R000500120089-9

SUBJECT: Home Leave Accrual for Personnel on Foreign 25X1A TO: Washington, D. C. 1. Revised leave regulations, recently received include no provision for the accrual of home leave for stationed overseas even though Public Law 233, 32nd Co such a provision. State Department employees in accruing five days home leave for each four months ove tion to their accrual of the regular statutory leave. 2. This omission on the part of our regulations hardship to Agency personnel, and is, at the present t morals problem. New Agency personnel arriving in nual leave at the rate of thirteen days per annum, or six days during their two-year tour of overseas duty. eligible for home leave, those employees must have eno accrued to carry them in a pay status for thirty cale twenty-two leave days are the equivalent of thirty cale employees could avail themselves of only four days leatwo years of overseas duty. 3. Although it is possible for an employee to 1	from Headquarters, Agency personnel ngress includes are presently 25X1, rseas duty in addi- is causing undue ime, a disturbing will accrue an- a total of twenty- In order to be ugh annual leave
Washington, D. C. 1. Revised leave regulations, recently received include no provision for the accrual of home leave for stationed overseas even though Public Law 233, 82nd Co such a provision. State Department employees in accruing five days home leave for each four months ove tion to their accrual of the regular statutory leave. 2. This emission on the part of our regulations hardship to Agency personnel, and is, at the present t morals problem. New Agency personnel arriving in nual leave at the rate of thirteen days per annum, or six days during their two-year tour of overseas duty. eligible for home leave, those employees must have eno accrued to carry them in a pay status for thirty calent twenty-two leave days are the equivalent of thirty cale employees could avail themselves of only four days leatwo years of overseas duty.	from Headquarters, Agency personnel ngress includes are presently 25X1, rseas duty in addi- is causing undue ime, a disturbing will accrue an- a total of twenty- In order to be ugh annual leave
Washington, D. C. 1. Revised leave regulations, recently received include no provision for the accrual of home leave for stationed overseas even though Public Law 233, 82nd Co such a provision. State Department employees in accruing five days home leave for each four months ove tion to their accrual of the regular statutory leave. 2. This omission on the part of our regulations hardship to Agency personnel, and is, at the present t morale problem. New Agency personnel arriving in nual leave at the rate of thirteen days per annum, or six days during their two-year tour of overseas duty. eligible for home leave, those employees must have eno accrued to carry them in a pay status for thirty calent twenty-two leave days are the equivalent of thirty calemployees could avail themselves of only four days leatwo years of overseas duty.	Agency personnel ngress includes are presently 25X1 rseas duty in addi- is causing undue ime, a disturbing will accrue an- a total of twenty- In order to be ugh annual leave
l. Revised leave regulations, recently received include no provision for the accrual of home leave for stationed overseas even though Public Law 233, 82nd Co such a provision. State Department employees in accruing five days home leave for each four months overtion to their accrual of the regular statutory leave. 2. This omission on the part of our regulations hardship to Agency personnel, and is, at the present t morale problem. New Agency personnel arriving in nual leave at the rate of thirteen days per annum, or six days during their two-year tour of overseas duty. eligible for home leave, those employees must have eno accrued to carry them in a pay status for thirty calent twenty-two leave days are the equivalent of thirty calemployees could avail themselves of only four days leatwo years of overseas duty.	Agency personnel ngress includes are presently 25X1 rseas duty in addi- is causing undue ime, a disturbing will accrue an- a total of twenty- In order to be ugh annual leave
l. Revised leave regulations, recently received include no provision for the accrual of home leave for stationed overseas even though Public Law 233, 82nd Co such a provision. State Department employees in accruing five days home leave for each four months ove tion to their accrual of the regular statutory leave. 2. This omission on the part of our regulations hardship to Agency personnel, and is, at the present t morale problem. New Agency personnel arriving in nual leave at the rate of thirteen days per annum, or six days during their two-year tour of overseas duty. eligible for home leave, those employees must have eno accrued to carry them in a pay status for thirty calent twenty-two leave days are the equivalent of thirty calemployees could avail themselves of only four days leatwo years of overseas duty.	Agency personnel ngress includes are presently 25X1 rseas duty in addi- is causing undue ime, a disturbing will accrue an- a total of twenty- In order to be ugh annual leave
include no provision for the accrual of home leave for stationed overseas even though Public Law 233, 82nd Co such a provision. State Department employees in accruing five days home leave for each four months ove tion to their accrual of the regular statutory leave. 2. This omission on the part of our regulations hardship to Agency personnel, and is, at the present t morale problem. New Agency personnel arriving in nual leave at the rate of thirteen days per annum, or six days during their two-year tour of overseas duty. eligible for home leave, those employees must have eno accrued to carry them in a pay status for thirty calent twenty-two leave days are the equivalent of thirty calemployees could avail themselves of only four days leatwo years of overseas duty.	Agency personnel ngress includes are presently 25X1. rseas duty in addi- is causing undue ime, a disturbing will accrue an- a total of twenty- In order to be ugh annual leave
include no provision for the accrual of home leave for stationed overseas even though Public Law 233, 82nd Co such a provision. State Department employees in accruing five days home leave for each four months over tion to their accrual of the regular statutory leave. 2. This omission on the part of our regulations hardship to Agency personnel, and is, at the present t morale problem. New Agency personnel arriving in nual leave at the rate of thirteen days per annum, or six days during their two-year tour of overseas duty. eligible for home leave, those employees must have eno accrued to carry them in a pay status for thirty calent twenty-two leave days are the equivalent of thirty calemployees could avail themselves of only four days leatwo years of overseas duty.	Agency personnel ngress includes are presently 25X1 rseas duty in addi- is causing undue ime, a disturbing will accrue an- a total of twenty- In order to be ugh annual leave
hardship to Agency personnel, and is, at the present t morale problem. New Agency personnel arriving in nual leave at the rate of thirteen days per annum, or six days during their two-year tour of overseas duty. eligible for home leave, those employees must have eno accrued to carry them in a pay status for thirty calent twenty-two leave days are the equivalent of thirty calemployees could avail themselves of only four days leatwo years of overseas duty.	ime, a disturbing will accrue an- a total of twenty- In order to be ugh annual leave
hardship to Agency personnel, and is, at the present t morale problem. New Agency personnel arriving in nual leave at the rate of thirteen days per annum, or six days during their two-year tour of overseas duty. eligible for home leave, those employees must have eno accrued to carry them in a pay status for thirty calent twenty-two leave days are the equivalent of thirty calemployees could avail themselves of only four days leatwo years of overseas duty.	ime, a disturbing will accrue an- a total of twenty- In order to be ugh annual leave Although it is mossible for an employee to l 	endar days, those ve during their four days' leave in two years, such limitation defeats which annual leave is authorized. Also, current regul cially hard on newly-hired junior personnel, whose prints, frankly, to see the world.	the purpose for ations are espe-
h. It is requested that action be initiated to tion by authorizing the accrual of home leave by Agenc tioned abroad. It is further requested that this auth effective 6 January 1952, the effective date of Public	y personnel sta- orization be made
	$
25X1A

Approved For Release 2002/05/08 : CIA-RDP57-00384R000500120089-9